No one spoke.

3. MARIO PEREZ LEDEZMA AND DEBORA REYES ARE REQUESTING A FOUR (4) FOOT VARIANCE TO THE LENGTH OF A CARPORT THAT WAS CONSTRUCTED AT 1937 KINGSDALE DRIVE.

Vice Chairman Craft called for those in favor of the variance request pertaining to a variance a four (4) foot variance to the length of a carport that was constructed at 1937 Kingsdale Drive.

Silvia Perez spoke on behalf of her uncle Mario Ledezma Perez stating that her uncle was unaware that a permit was needed to build the carport beyond 20 feet in length.

Vice Chairman Craft called for those against the variance request pertaining to a variance a four (4) foot variance to the length of a carport that was constructed at 1937 Kingsdale Drive.

A neighbor across the street spoke in opposition of the variance stating that the carport roof was unattractive and didn't match the roof of the house. His other concern was the fact that the roof consists of clay shingles and may fly off in a storm and could possibly damage his property.

Vice Chairman Craft closed the public hearing at 6:29 p.m. and adjourned the meeting.
