Consideration of and action on a recommendation to approve an agreement with CorWorth Building Systems and Restroom Facilities Ltd. through the Buyboard Purchasing Cooperative Contract # 423-13 for Dow Park pavilion buildings.

Summary:

On February 16, 2016 the City Council Approved Task Order #2 with Halff Associates for the Dow Park Pavilion. On June 9th a Public Meeting was conducted to get input from citizens on which of the two proposed concepts of the pavilion(s) the citizens preferred. On July 25th the Deer Park Community Development Corporation recommended a final pavilion concept and then on August 2nd, the City Council approved the concept. Since that time the architect, ad-hoc committee, and staff have been working with CorWorth to finalize the design of the buildings within the pavilion structures.

Fiscal/Budgetary Impact:

Funding will come from the dedicated one half of one percent sales and use tax for Type B projects, the Dow Park Pavilion has been appropriated $1,500,000 of the dedicated funds.

Recommend approval to City Council for an agreement with CorWorth Building Systems and Restroom Facilities Ltd. through the Buyboard Purchasing Cooperative Contract # 423-13 for the Dow Park pavilion buildings.
